WASHINGTON, July 18, 1984.

ment Orders, No. 233. By the President of the United States of America.

of the United States had been for some time past, and then were, opposed, and the execution thereof obstructed, in certain States therein mentioned, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary source of judicial pressedings, or by the powers wated in the marshale by law; And whereas, immediately after the issuing of the said proces instituted in the land and naval forces of the United States were put late activity to suppress the said insurrection and rebellion; And whereas, the Congress of the United States, by an art approved on the 2t day of March, 16ss, by an art approved on the 2t day of March, 16ss, do enset that during the said rebellion the President of the United States, whenever in his judgment the public safety may require it, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of Aebess corpus in any case throughout the United States, or is any p at thereof;

And whereas, o the 10th day of September tast, the President of the United States only issued his proclassition, wherein he declared that the privilege of the writ of sahess corpus should be suspended shroughout the United States in the casewhere, by the authority of the President of the United States, military, naval, and civil officers of the United States, or any of thems, hold persons under their command or in their custedy, either a prisoners of war, spies, or alders or abstore of the esseny, or offi ers, soldiers, or seamen enrolled or drafted or mustered or emisted is, or belonging to, the land or mavel forces of the United States or eserters therefrom, or otherwise amenable to tary law or the Bules and Articles of War, or in the and is potamation of the 18th of feptamber, 1868, he has of 60° uni and be duly em-forced in and throughout the said State of Ken-tucky, and that worthal law be for the present ex-tablished therein. I so, therefore, heavy requir-of the military officers in the said State that the rivileges of the writ of Anbras corpus be effectually spended within the said State, according to the tary omcers as all civil officers and authorities ex-stating or found within the said State of Kentucky, to take notice of this proclamation and to give tuli effect to the same. The marrial law herein proclaimed, and the things in that respect here n ord-red, will not be deemed or taken to interfere with the holding of lawful elections, or with the preceedings of the centitutional fegislature of Kentucky, or with the administration of sautes in the courts of law constitutional legislature of Kentucky, or with the administration of pastics in the courts of law en sting therein between citizens of the United States in suits or proceedings which do not affect the military operations or the constituted authorities of the Government of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have beceunts set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the sity of
